If you enjoyed this, make sure you head over to the Science Centre for extra festive fun at their Winter Wonders events taking place on weekends in December.

More info can be found on how to take part <http://www.leisureandculturedundee.com/leisure/santa-dash>

Sunday 4th - 9.30am-12noon

Right Up Your Street by Shaper Caper: The enchanted Era Emporium is open! The floor is swept, the windows are washed, but there's definitely something funny going on with those mannequins! It all starts with an enchanted jukebox. Choose a record and watch the shopkeeper's wild imagination come to life. Whoosh back and forward in time, exploring history through dance. Featuring a soundtrack of popular music from the last one hundred years, Right Up Your Street is an interactive celebration of the people's love for dance, past and present. (video and images can be found on <https://www.shapercaper.com/rightupyourstreet> )

Sunday 11th - 2pm-2.15pm & 4pm-4.15pm

Book Reading: Local author Joanna Kerr reads from her book "I Can Do It Myself!" It's the most magical time of the year and Erwin the strong-willed elf is super excited as Christmas draws ever closer. He's about to start his dream job... following in the footsteps of his famous grandfather, Eric, who was head elf in Santa's workshop. He can't wait to get started! With his sights firmly set on success, there's just no stopping Erwin. With lots of friendly elves ready to offer helpful advice, Erwin looks well placed to make a go of it. Santa will be so pleased, his grandfather would be so proud of him! What could possibly go wrong?

Flash Mob (Dundee Rep Engage Christmas): look out for a large group of 'presents' who will explore festivity, capitalism and what is most important right now.
